

Guest List Blues

Danko Jones

You've got a body
It's hotter than Rock'n'Roll
The boys are getting rowdy
They wanna watch you take off all your clothes

You're like a dream
When a girl like you walks off the magazine
And into my life
When the dust settles down and no one's around
You're still there blowing my mind

You're like nobody
A full grown woman not just a girl
You like to party
You'll take a noun and turn it into a verb

You're like a dream
When a girl like you walks off the magazine
And into my life
When the dust settles down and no one's around
You're still there blowing my mind, yeah

Aha, aha
Wooh

Yeah
Limousines every night
Leather heels, expensive wines
All the best that money buys
Rocks that shine
I'm sick and tired of living low
I like this life, I want the show
A backstage pass I need to know, baby

I wanna be on the list for evermore
Don't leave me, you got that foot I need in the door

You got a body
It's hotter than Rock'n'Roll
The boys are getting rowdy
They wanna watch you take off all your clothes

You got a body
They're getting rowdy
You're like nobody
You like to party-ey-ey-ey-ey
Pardon me I like to be a V.I.P. on your guest list tonight
