Never Too Loud

Danko Jones

I followed the rules 'til the volume knobs broke
I'd stand beside the P.A. all night
As the old saying goes if it's too loud you're too old
I like to do things right

But it's a quarter to ten and I slept in again
I can't hear the alarm clock go off
You can scream in my ear but I won't hear a thing
Even if you dropped a bomb

Because it's never
It's never too loud
It's never
It's never too loud

You can kick and scream blow your top and blow off steam
Don't matter 'cause I won't hear shit
Don't think for a second that it doesn't bother me man
Going deaf is a son of a bitch

Because it's never
It's never too loud
It's never
It's never too loud

And the louder you swear it gets
The more I know I'm going deaf

Because it's never
It's never too loud
It's never
It's never too loud

Because it's never
It's never too loud
It's never
It's never too loud
