

Soul on Ice

Danko Jones

I was born of fire, baptized in sweat
I walk alone, when the sun sets
My heart is hard, and my blood is cold from getting kicked in the teeth
I'm too young to feel so old

But don't get me wrong this ain't a cry for help
If you want to test me you'll hurt yourself!

I got a soul on ice, frozen to the bone
I got a soul on ice, it's so cold baby, it's so cold

Keep your distance and watch you step
The closer you are the further I get

But don't get me wrong this ain't a cry for help
I you want to test me you'll hurt yourself!

I got a soul on ice, day night and night and day
I got a soul on ice, no feelings and no tame
I got a soul on ice and I'm frozen to the bone
I got a soul on ice, It's so cold baby, it's so cold
