Time Heals Nothing

Danko Jones

I've got these feelings, alive in my head
Don't listen to reason, they only see red
And I'm comin' to get you, comin' to get you

I know, I'm gonna live through this
And when the wound on my back heals
I'm comin' to get you, I'm comin' to get you, alright

Just look at me, I'm living proof
That time heals nothing, yeah
Just look at me, I'm living proof
That time heals nothing, yeah

The bullet is lodged in my skull
I refuse less and risk it all
'Cause I'm comin' to get you, I'm comin' to get you

I know I'm gonna live through this
And when the wound on my back heals
I'm coming to get you, I'm coming to get you, alright

Just look at me, I'm living proof
That time heals nothing, yeah
Just look at me, I'm living proof
That time heals nothing, yeah

I've got these feelings, alive in my head
Don't listen to reason, they only see red
And I'm coming to get you, I'm coming to get you

On the day I find you the sun will shine
The birds will sing, everything will be right
I'm coming to get you and I'm coming to get you

Living proof, alright

Just look at me, I'm living proof
That time heals nothing, yeah
Just look at me, I'm living proof
That time heals nothing, yeah
