

Tonight Is Fine

Danko Jones

The best good looking girl in town is checkin' you out
You get your rocks off a cock block
'cause it's long way down
Let'em all just wait in line, it's fine
'cause what they got she doesn't want
You play it cool, relax, ease back, and get in the zone

The girl's attractive
She knows she's pretty
She gets exactly
What she wants it's silly
All the boys fall down
But you just stand your ground
Take her to the side and say
Tonight Is Fine

They all try to tease her and please her and make her believe
But the best thing they going for them
is their colour tv

The girl's attractive
She knows she's pretty
She gets exactly
What she wants it's silly
All the boys fall down
But you just stand your ground
Gotta learn to cease the day
So you take her to the side and say
Tonight Is Fine
Tonight Is Fine
Tonight Is Fine
Tonight Is Fine

There should be no hesitation
When you put your bid in for her relations
When most boys like to talk her up and act bigger
You make sure you got your back to her

No I'm not sayin' along the way you won't get messed up
Every time you do you goin' get more tough
And even when the coast is clear
You gotta pick your spots

Tonight Is Fine

She's so hot
She knows she's pretty
She gets exactly
What she wants it's silly
She got you out of your mind and going giddy
Gotta learn to cease the day
So you take her the side and say

Tonight Is Fine
Tonight Is Fine
