

Word Is Bond

Danko Jones

This is the time, this is the place
I'm gonna make it happen baby, I'm on the make
And there might be a million other people trying to do what I do
But I'm the only one who knows what to do
There might be a million girls trying to get with this man
But I only got eyes for you

And if you want it I will do it
My word is my bond

Yeah alright okay
Tonight and today

When I say I'm in love you best believe I'm in love
LUV, PYT
'Cause I am the phenomenon who always wants to get it on I've chosen you your the one I know I come on strong
Just show me some leg and I'll be ready for bed
Gonna take you to the morning
'Til you're light in the head

And if you want it I will do it
My word is my bond
And when I do it you will love it

Alright baby I know everybody's been talking behind my back
Saying all kinds of crazy things about me
But when I'm singing 'bout ya
I'm thinking 'bout ya
And there ain't nobody else that I'm thinking about
Let me show you with this line, with this statement right here...

When you shake your booty babe you get me so hot hot, aaaw yeah
When you shake your booty babe you get me so hot hot, aaaw haha yeah
When you shake your booty babe you get me so hot hot, aw shit baby let's do it one more time
When you shake your booty babe you get me so hot hot, I'm gonna do it over a nd over again
When you shake your booty babe you get me so hot hot
When you shake your booty babe you get me so hot hot
When you shake your booty babe you get me so hot hot
When you shake your booty babe you get me so hot hot
Hot hot hot hot hot hot hot hot hot hot hot hot hot hot hot hot

Wow, I will dare, alright, okay
This is the time, this is the place
I'm gonna make it happen baby, I'm on the make
And there might be a million other people trying to do what I do
But I'm the only one who knows what to do
There might be a million girls trying to get with this man
But I only got eyes for you

And when you want it I will do it
My word is my bond
And when I do it you will love it

Yeah
