

You Ruin the Day

Danko Jones

Honey it's a shame how you always playing games are meant to do it right
If we could only come to a middle ground I swear we'd have a wilder time
I wanna do you every which way that makes you satisfied
But baby if you wanna run I'd be cool I've had my fun but should be moving on

Gimme just one reason not to doubt you
You're fucking nuts but I'm nothing without you

You like getting loved but make it out
I'm ruining the day
The trigger's up, I've caught you now
But baby it's okay

I've got a wandering eye it's never ever said but doesn't mean a thing
Take it in stride we like some getting by [?] from ruin you
You gotta move but I ask you just a lili-little hesitant
Your insecurity is driving me just a little crazy I need medicine

Gimme just one reason not to trust you
You're fucking nuts but I'm nothing without you

You like getting loved but make it out
I'm ruining the day
The trigger's up, I've caught you now
But baby it's okay

Just turn around and walk right out
Well my composure's done
Just making sure you got it done
Appreciate to follow soon
Cut you loose at any course
Make you wish some hopeful guy [?]
I'm not afraid to come out and say
What is really on my mind

Gimme just one reason not to doubt you
You're fucking nuts but I'm nothing without you

You like getting loved but make it out
I'm ruining the day
The trigger's up, I've caught you now
But baby it's okay

You like getting loved but make it out
I'm ruining the day
The trigger's up, I've caught you now
But baby it's okay
