Something's up with Jack
Something's up with Jack
Don't know if we're ever going to get him back

He's all alone up there Locked away inside

Never says a word

Hope he hasn't died

Something's up with Jack Something's up with Jack

Christmas time is buzzing I'm my skull Will it let me be? I cannot tell There are som many things I cannot grasp When I think I've got, and then at last Through my bony fingers it does slip Like a snowflake in a fiery grip

Something's here I'm not quite getting Though I try, I keep forgetting Like a memory long since past Here in an instantm gone in a flash What does it mean? What does it mean?

In these little bric-a-brac A secret's waiting to be cracked These dolls and toys confuse me so Confound it all, I love it though

Simple objects, nothing more
Bout something's hidden through a door
Though I do not have the key
Something's there I cannot see
What does it mean?
What does it mean?
What does it mean?

I've read there Christmas books so many times I k now the stories and I know the rhymes I know the Christmas carols all by heart My skull's so full, it's tearing me apart As often as I've read them, something's wrong So hard to put my bony finger on

Or perhaps it's not as deep
As I've been led to think
Am I trying much too hard?
Of course! I've been too close to see
The answer's right in front of me
Right in front of me

It's simple really, very clear Like music drifting in the air Invisible, but everywhere Just because I cannot see it Doesn't mean I can't believe it

You know, I think this Christmas thing Is not as tricky as it seems And why should they have all the fun? It should belong to anyone

Not anyone, in fact, but me
Whu, I could make a Christmas tree
And there's no reason I can find
I couldn't handle Christmas time

I bet I could improve it too And that's exactly what I'll do Hee, hee, hee Eureka! I've got it
