All over your body, baby I wanna be all over your body

[Danny]

All over your body, body
I wanna see what you got
Girl you know your a ten, you probably hear that a lot
So you run it, run it, that's why you here at my spot
You could've been anywhere else in the world, but your not

[Bridge]

Na Na Na, I know she wants to have a little fun
She picked the right one to get it done
I say the same things to everyone

[Chorus]

All over your body [2x]
All over your body, baby I wanna be all over your body

[Danny]

I know that she want it, want it
Cause she heard I'm the best
You heard so many rumors, let me put em' to rest
Na- now get on it, on it
Let me touch it, caress
And you must be a murderer, have you kill in that dress

[Bridge]
