

Emotional

Danny Fernandes

Shut the fuck up
I, I hate you
Leave me alone
Don't you holla at me
Turn your volume way down, down, down, down
What? You say fuck me, fuck you girl
I don't wanna say something I can't undo girl
You better be glad that I love ya
Then a tear falls down your pretty face

I don't mean it
I don't mean it, no
Everything I said, I don't mean that
Matter fact delete that
Who can stay mad at a face like that

So forgive me if I called you bitch
But you know me I can be emotional
Forgive me if I said that I hate you
But you know me I can be emotional
I apologize a thousand times
If I made you cry I still lost my mind
So forgive me if I called you bitch
But you know me, I can be emotional

Wait just listen
Don't walk away from me
I know I was wrong
And you say I don't pay attention
I'm an asshole, trippin'
And not to mention, I'm always gone

Hold up, put down them keys
Don't leave girl
I need you like a heart needs a beat girl
Cause I don't wanna see another tear fall down your pretty face

I don't mean it
I don't mean it, no
Everything I said, I don't mean that
Matter fact delete that
Who can stay mad at a face like that

So forgive me if I called you bitch
But you know me I can be emotional
Forgive me if I said that I hate you
But you know me I can be emotional
I apologize a thousand times
If I made you cry I still lost my mind
So forgive me if I called you bitch
But you know me, I can be emotional

I can't help that I'm emotional
Sometimes I love you but sometimes I don't
And why's it okay when you call me names
But when I do you always act this way
Cause one minute we enemies the next we're lovers

I guess most of our chemistry is under covers
Just show me that smile girl
I wanna put a kiss right on your pretty face

So forgive me if I called you bitch
But you know me I can be emotional
Forgive me if I said that I hate you (I don't hate you)
But you know me I can be emotional
I apologize a thousand times
If I made you cry I still lost my mind
So forgive me if I called you bitch
But you know me, I can be emotional
