

Love Letter

Danny Fernandes

I woke up in another bed, you're here
Pictures of you in my mind
Running around my head
Wishing you were by my side
Oh yeah
You're messing with my train of thought
So fast, quick I'm jumping off
Wishing you would catch my fall

She wants something that we're missing
So I'm trying to find a piece to fix it
I'm trying to give you love
Why you running?
Don't take it all away

She wrote this love letter made me cry
You said that it's over
Don't know why
So I read between the lines
She was with another guy
Yes she wrote this love letter
To say goodbye
I guess our love is just a lie

I know it's just a trick
Why you creeping behind my back?
Girl you don't deserve my time
Oh no
And your stuff is laying in the hall
Don't even call
Don't even think about me tell you off
But you don't deserve my time

She wants something that we're missing
So I'm trying to find a piece to fix it
I'm trying to give you love
Why you running?
Don't take it all away

She wrote this love letter made me cry
You said that it's over
Don't know why
So I read between the lines
She was with another guy
Yes she wrote this love letter
To say goodbye
I guess our love is just a lie

My heart beats slowly now
I think I might shut it down
I think I might cut you out
Cause the strength it takes
To get over this, oh
I don't think I got it now
Baby I'm all cried out
And I can't take no more

She wrote this love letter made me cry
It said that it's over
I don't know why
So I read between the lines
She was with another guy
Yes she wrote this love letter
To say goodbye
I guess our love is just a lie

Forget your love letter
Forget your love letter
I guess our love was just a lie
Forget your love letter
Forget your love letter
I guess our love was just a lie
I guess our love was just a lie
Forget your love letter
I guess our love was just a lie
