Crazy Not To

Danny Gokey

Love, I don't think so I'd have to be a fool to go down that road Aw, but look at you, look at you, look at you I'd be crazy not to

I know, it makes no sense Why would I jump off a perfectly good cliff Aw, but look at you, look at you, look at you I'd be crazy not to

My best bet is turn around and run And not get all caught up in your love My friends say I'm crazy if I do Aw, but look at you, look at you, look at you Oh, I'd be crazy not to

My heart, is telling me stay Like maybe I should take a chance and have faith Aw, and look at you, look at you, look at you Baby, I'd be crazy not to

My best bet is turn around and run And not get all caught up in your love My friends say I'm crazy if I do Aw, but look at you, look at you, look at you Oh, I'd be crazy not to, baby, I'd be crazy not to

I know if I kiss you It's only gonna lead to More and more, and more, and more

So my best bet is turn around and run And not get all caught up in your love My friends say I'm crazy if I do Aw, but look at you, look at you, look at you Yeah, look at you, look at you, look at you I'd be crazy not to fall in love, crazy not to fall in love wit h you I'd be crazy not to fall in love, crazy not to fall in love wit h you
