

I Will Not Say Goodbye

Danny Gokey

Sometimes the road just ends
Changes everything you've been
And all that's left to be
Is empty, broken, lonely, hoping

I'm supposed to be strong
I'm supposed to find a way to carry on

I don't want to feel better
I don't want to not remember
I will always see your face
In the shadows of this haunted place

I will laugh, I will cry
Shake my fist at the sky
But I will not say goodbye

They keep saying time will heal
But the pain just gets more real
The sun comes up each day
Finds me waiting, fading, hating, praying

If I can keep on holding on
Maybe I can keep my heart
From knowing that you're gone

I don't want to feel better
I don't want to not remember
I will always see your face
In the shadows of this haunted place

I will laugh, I will cry
Shake my fist at the sky
But I will not say goodbye

I will curse, I will pray
I'll relive every day
I will shoulder the blame
I will shout out your name

I will laugh, I will cry
Shake my fist at the sky
But I will not say
Will not say goodbye

Will not say goodbye
Will not say
