

I'll Be Over You

Danny Saucedo

I'll be over you

When all the rivers turn to sand
When there's no sky above our land
When shadows no longer fall
When all is all

I'll be over you

When all the colors fade to grey
When there's no sun to light the day
When angels no longer fly
When tears run dry

I'll be over you

When all the rivers turn to sand
When there's no sky above our land
When shadows no longer fall
When all is all

I'll be over you

When all the colors fade to grey
When there's no sun to light the day
When angels no longer fly
When tears run dry

I'll be over you
