

Tokyo

Danny Saucedo

Warm and cold
You grab me down, you lift me with your magic
New and old
I know your way but I don't understand it
Steel and stone
A thousand years of history and future
Gold and cone
A lazy beam's creating this illusion

I can leave any day
But you're always gonna stay on my mind

Tokyo
You've got the rhythm in you
High and low
She's gonna do it to you
Tokyo
You've got the rhythm in you
High and low
She's gonna do it to you

Sleepless nights
My eyes are open but I must be dreaming
You and I
We play it cool but underneath we're steaming

You can run you can hide
But this roller-coaster ride never stops

Tokyo
You've got the rhythm in you
High and low
She's gonna do it to you
Tokyo
You've got the rhythm in you
High and low
She's gonna do it to you
She's gonna do it to you
She's gonna do it to you...

Ohh...

I can leave any day
But you're always gonna stay on my mind
And you can run you can hide
But this roller-coaster ride never stops

Tokyo
You've got the rhythm in you
High and low
She's gonna do it to you
Tokyo
You've got the rhythm in you
High and low
She's gonna do it to you

Tokyo

You've got the rhythm in you
High and low
She's gonna do it to you
Tokyo
High and low
She's gonna do it to you
