

The Feeling Is So Right

Danzel

The feeling ...
The feeling ...
The feeling ...
The feeling ...

This morning I woke up next to a woman I don't know,
She opened up her eyes, looked at me
And asked me for the time.
I said: "Excuse me but do you remember
when and how we got here?"
But she just smiled and licked her upper lip.

But the feeling is alright, the feeling is alright
Feeling is alright to me.
The feeling is alright, the feeling is alright
Feeling is alright to me.

This morning I woke up next to a woman I don't know,
She opened up her eyes, looked at me
And asked me for the time.
I said: "Excuse me but do you remember
when and how we got here?"
But she just smiled and licked her upper lip.

But the feeling is alright, the feeling is alright
Feeling is alright to me.
The feeling is alright, the feeling is alright
Feeling is alright to me.
But the feeling is alright, the feeling is alright
Feeling is alright to me.

The feeling ...
The feeling ...

But the feeling is alright, the feeling is alright
Feeling is alright to me.
the feeling is alright,
the feeling is alright
Feeling is alright to me.
