Danzig

Bodies
please don't cry
bodies
don't die
bodies
please don't cry
bodies

I been taking all the silver I been saving all the gold I'm gonna stuff it down the throat of a week old corpse save that doggone soul
I been saving up my pain I'm gonna give it back in spades I been strangling the cries from the murder of love save your soul tonight

I been raising up the dead gonna send them to the house of Cain I been praying in light of the waning moon slay your doggone soul
I been take out of heaven
I been put upon this world I been walking up and down to and fro save your doggone soul

I got bodies on the left I got bodies on the right
I got bodies
up and down
all across town
