

Caught In My Eye

Danzig

Through your dark eyes
You can feel my every sin

When I walk right into a straight line this world of yours

Well, I got you caught in my eye
I got you caught in my eye, eye, eye
Well, I got you caught in my eye, again

You're the fall guy
In the corner of my gloom
And it feels like everything I see is nothing new

Well, I got you caught in my eye
I got you caught in my eye, eye, eye
Well, I got you caught in my eye, again

I got you caught in my eye
Well, I got you caught in my eye, eye, eye
Well, I got you caught in my eye, again

There's a door there
That opens
Without you
And the door lies
With it's open keys
To my room

You're the fall guy in the corner of my gloom
And it feels like everything I see is nothing new

Well, I got you caught in my eye
I got you caught in my eye, eye, eye
Well, I got you caught in my eye, again

I got you caught in my eye
Well, I got you caught in my eye, eye, eye
Well, I got you caught in my eye, again
