

Do You Wear the Mark

Danzig

Devil on the left
angel on the right
there's no mistake
who'll I be w/ tonight
over the fore
lamb's head on my lap
days
pass like weeks w/o the sight

Then comes the fury of the lullaby
then comes the fury of the lullaby

Heartbeat in a hole
an eyeball
loose and wild
dropping memories
out upon the open tiles and over to the left there sit the loveless ones crying slowly and sucking on a gun

darling
darling
do you wear the mark
