

Let It Be Captured

Danzig

All I Want,
All I get,
Let it be captured,
In my heart.

World on fire,
World in pain,
Find myself wanting you again.

All I want,
All I need,
Let it be captured,
In my heart.

Slip my hand up inside,
Cradle the soul that you hide,
From my eyes,
I can see,
So many things,
That you want,
That you need,
I can give
Let it be captured in my heart.
