

Satan's Crucifixion

Danzig

All you who stand before the dawn
All you who wander paths of scorn
Black cross that casts a shadowed fall
All you who stand before the dawn

Satan's cross burns in hell

All you who brave the harshest rains
All you who feed upon the pain
Black cross burned into your brain
All you who walk the endless day

Satan's cross still points to hell
