

I Wish You Knew This Song Was About You

Daphne Loves Derby

This bedroom light, distracts my stare,
I find it hard to keep still and everything is so still, like t his.

I won't have to wait for long before I start to see that,
You're the only thing that was.

Will you stay? Keep this evening calm
I'll shield you from this night,
I'll make everything alright.

Will you make sure the door is locked?
We won't have to talk
As long as you are here with me,
Again.
