

Wake me up.
It feels like I've been sleeping since New Years day,
Dreaming my life away.
Please try to understand if you think I've changed.
And all my friends they say I waste too much time staring out of windows in airplanes.
No no I won't take the aisle seat.

Just take me away with blood and bravery.
I am the ever green that breaks the storm.
Sing hallelujah, I sold my soul to the darkening.

Just tell me why I I
Why do I keep myself when I know I'm still walking blind.
I'll just keep myself in bed.
And I'm the only fool that runs away from anything thats
good for me,
But don't you dare keep me in your prayers.

Just take me away with blood and bravery.
I am the ever green that breaks the storm.
Sing hallelujah, I sold my soul to the darkening.

Happy New Year, hope I make it through.
Happy New Year, hope to see you soon.

Love and mercy, blood and bravery.
I am the ever green that breaks the storm.
Sing hallelujah, I sold my soul to the darkening.
