

Simple, Starving To Be Safe

Daphne Loves Derby

Lately I've been thinking so strangely about the clouds, and how they seem to slowly fade away, yeah.
Maybe someday we will find a way to disappear.
Just me and you on silver lining dreams.

Oh, how could I survive without your love,
and the hope you bring?
Oh, even when the sky is falling down, I know I have you, and i t's all I need.

Lately I've been hoping you can stay with me,
And I could hold you close 'til the end of time, yeah.
Maybe someday we will grab some change and run away,
but for now I'll learn to say goodbye.

Oh, how could I survive without your love,
and the hope you bring?
Oh, even when the world is breaking down, I know I have you, an d it's all I need.

Oh, she is my everything.
Oh, she is all I need.
Oh, (yeah) she is my everything.
Oh, she is all I need.

Oh, how could I survive without your love,
and the hope you bring?
Oh, even when the world just falls apart, I know I have you, an d it's all I need.
