Spring Street

Dar Williams

I'm sorry that I left you With your questions all alone But I was too happy driving And too angry to drive home

I was thinking about the easy courage Of my distant friends They said I could let this bridge wash out And never make amends

Can I blow this small town Make a big sound Like the star of a film noir postcard Can I just forget the frames I shared with you

And I can't believe what they're saying They're saying I can change my mind Start over on Spring Street I'm welcome anytime

Well there are Spring Street storefront daisies Floating on their neon stems There are new shirts on the clothes racks Should I feel like one of them

I can find a small apartment Where a struggling artist died And pretend because I pay the rent I know that pain inside

Yeah, let's watch the tour bus stop and tell us Here's the scene of a spring green life dream Take the best part Write it in your caffeine diary

And I can't believe what they're saying They're saying I can leave tonight Start over on Spring Street I'm welcome anytime

This year April had a blizzard Just to show she did not care And the new dead leaves They made the trees look like children with gray hair

But I'll push myself up through the dirt And shake my petals free I'm resolved to being born And so resigned to bravery

Yeah the one who leaves this also grieves this Too much rain on a prairie flood plain Houses floating, love is like that We built on the river

And that's to say, yeah I'm leaving But I don't have to go there I don't have to go to Spring Street 'Cause it's spring everywhere...
