

Eternity Rite (pt. 1 - Sight From The Abyss - The Confession & Prophecy)

Dargaard

I feel this cold darkness
The very emptiness calls me.
Follow me on my path...
Come, sentence this world to death.
Mortal life is nothing -
compared to the void.
Your fears will be erased
As the thought reaches eternity
What once was balance is now broken.
As this shadows arised
from the depths beyond time and space -
The abysses beyond the line of mortal imagination
The light faded and left no source
I walked the void...
The light faded and left no source
I walked the void
The light faded and left no source
Here time is the traveler and I am the constant

There's sounds on the inside of your brain like jet aircraft taking off.
Your body comes apart if you aren't careful.
Rotted dogs crawl into your thoughts while you sleep.
Then one day you wake up saying: "I'm not crazy. I'm not crazy. I'm not."
Well.
At that point, you're already fucked.
