

Miracles

Dark Moor

I was the sunlight
I was the storm
Of this empty world
I spread joy and fright
Among the swarm
He was born
He was afraid
My soul torn left
And I feel betrayed
What I see
I can't forgive
This pain within me
Despite you live
Miracles
Only miracles
Taking my time for miracles
Bringing you to life
A thousand ages I roamed
Wherever I could see the road
Moving mountains
With faith I showed
Feelings are never owed
Just in time I realized
How much I'm yet
In vain sacrificed
Now I have nothing to say
No God to pray to
Nowhere to stay
Miracles
Only miracles
Taking my time for miracles
Bringing me to life
A God omnipotent
Was not omnipresent
An unbeliever man
Broke up his sacred plan
Took care of his own mind
His eyes no longer blind
The God swore paradise
The man's life is the price
A God omnipotent
Was not omnipresent
An unbeliever man
Broke up his sacred plan
Don't want your mercy
I don't need your hand
I just can live without your help at all
Shall I take my vengeance
Or let him live alone?
Shall you just think out the way
That you are treat your first son
Shall my fury slam
'Till you kneel and crawl?
Won't grovel down
Look for another lamb
