

The Night of the Age

Dark Moor

When the golden dusk covers me
And the beams play with the trees
Memories so come to my heart
Because the guardian of the dreams departs

[Bridge:]

Who stole my illusions?
Who stole my hopes?
Why did the light off
And since I grope?
Where will I find the force
To untie the past's rope in my soul?

[Chorus:]

Go on
Within the black night of the age getting my sadness turn to rage
Even oblivion
So feeling will be free again
the dreams will break the chains flying to the eternity
Sometimes in dreams I see her eyes
Watching me like wells of lies
Those in the cold cloak of the night
Were my sole flame , of whom I was acolyze

[Bridge]

[Chorus]

Where are the guardians of the dreams? Return to me Tell me answers that my mind will

[Chorus]
