

Someday

Dark New Day

Walk the path again
will it lead a diferent way?
Will the stones you turned show the mess that you have made?

And can you turn around?
will the cycles heal your face?
were they rich like me?

What if someday
you wake up alone?
left with no one
with all that you've done

Nothing matters
when everything shatters
who come after you?

Adding one more loss
just to redirect the blame the players have all gone so tired of the game

They came there to watch as you drown in your own shame were they rich like me?

What if someday
you wake up alone
with all that you've done

Nothing matters
when everything shatters
who come after you?

You wanna cross the lines inspired of me?
If you look you'll find what you can't see so many times I've tried to give in all the lies is it wasted time?

So now
what if someday
you wake up alone?
with all that you've done

Nothing matters
when everything shatters
who come after you?
