

Not of This World

Dark Princess

I give up...don't wanna win
This useless war...
I'm not gonna walk on broken glass
Anymore...
From the bottom of my heart
I let you go
Staying free forever,
I'm out of range...
Don't you feel the change?
It's all over...

Not of this world, I roam alone
And see no one who could take me home.
Though all my wounds are open wide,
There's no more chilling fear by my side!
Some die for love - you live for pain
And turn to dust again and again...
But all I need - a chance to run
Away from here to see the Sun...

Falling down from grace, don't care -
It won't hurt!
All the sinners play this
Dangerous game...
Don't you feel the same?
Game's not over...

Not of this world, I roam alone
And see no one who could take me home.
Though all my wounds are open wide,
There's no more chilling fear by my side!
Some die for love - you live for pain
And turn to dust again and again...
But all I need - a chance to run
Away from here to see the Sun...

In darkest dreams, so frail and hollow,
You found no cure to heal my sorrow...
I'm just a butterfly in fire
Tonight,
Mesmerized by your light...
