

Angel Soul

Dark the Suns

Under the starlight skies
I watch her snow white face On sleeping leaves my angel's tears shine light that's quiet and cold

In beautiful darkness
birds of death sing in the end

All these memories will be lost all these dreams forever gone Shadows dance in the quiet mist What lies beyond the darkness...

In beautiful darkness
birds of death sing in the end
Beneath the starry skies forever sleeps the angel soul

You drowned with Sun
You broke my heart
