

Like Angels And Demons

Dark the Suns

I was watching the night of Eden and thought everything is turning in my life So many times I have lost my way and had misfortune with me

Shadows were passing by and made my eyes to see the grief I remember beautiful moments among the darkness of the night

Everytime I stare to darkness everytime my tears will disappear Everytime I feel the passion, everytime I set my demons free

All flowers have withered away from this life I see how world has changed turned the page

Everywhere I can see pain and violence, tearful eyes and grief and I see everywhere the angels are crying for the world
