

The Sleeping Beauty

Dark the Suns

I cannot close my eyes
I', watching sleeping beauty the world without the fear, the world without the pain

Tonight there are no tears, no cry tonight there are no painted smiles Tonight...

There is a ghost on the sun when night has fallen on the ground angels are dancing on the sky I'm watching sleeping beauty

Tonight your voice is calling again
Everything is so perfect, you are here tonight I buried you deep in my heart and now our fate becomes one
