

Inside the Particle Storm

Dark Tranquillity

Inside the particle storm
Where clouds of napalm shimmer
With the promise of one final dawn
Inside the particle bliss
Where rages collide into nothingness
And the erasions, one final kiss

I crawl in the garden of eden
Clogging the bloodstream of birth
Tearing a hole in the fabric of life
The horizon enriched with scars

Inside the particle place
A shimmer of disillusion
Proclaiming the end of days
We leave now
Nothing will follow, nothing at all
The cleansing flames of entropy to devour us all

Our lungs are filled with sorry
Our children drowning like dogs
Waken to the weight of cold dark matter
Without promise, meaning, or name

Inside the particle storm
The poison gene of humanity confined
This is the moment when bloodshed sank into the sky
The heavy price of chaos
Descend in merciless demise
