

You are all that matters in my private demonology those who fail us now the sons of wishes the bastard child of dream enemies of hope
let it be gone it's all pretend

Mind matters, matters not

Never again in perfect clarity see the day in childlike vision where does it lead from here on without that guidance disaster role model without a part our search is wider cast off those wide-eyed hopes and dreams

Mind matters, matters not

No need to see you there the path we made is clear just stay ahead of me this is not for me to see

This time a prayer onto nothing project again direct oppose to action all across the board shortcomings close to call
