

Zodijackyl Light

Dark Tranquillity

Crown the impulse that deliberately fall
Defeat in spiritless action
Isolation - burn the greenwood
Order of the vertical path

Descendant
Crawl in the remnants of one thousand lies
Restaging
Torching a world that was left behind
Zodiackyl light

Cross the sharpest void
Deride the embers of his faith
The bringer that on million horses ride

Waiting for the call within the spark of sin
Ever reminiscent of the coming of storm
Can you see the cosmic face in which disorder lies

Burning of oppression
The inventor
Is the killing hand
Be that of the darkest sin
To frustrate hope and love

I shall not be blinded
I shall not be forced

Resistance
Feasting on debris from celestial wars

Burning in the sky
Beyond the realm of time
Sequence of the nucleus
The glowing dust in flight
Zodijackal light

And they ride, they ride
The drama takes the lead
The beast of heaven their guide

Racing through the vastness
Constellation disarray
That darkness could not have existed
That bares no witness to the light

Sweet endless
Perpetually prong through interior vaults
So seamless
Joints of time cannot shackle the beast

Zodijackyl light.
