

Give Up Dope

Darkbuster

Everybody's got their problems
Ain't that the spice of life?
Don't give in, don't give up resist temptation
C'mon and please think twice
(THINK TWICE!)

My friends said he'd give up the dope
He don't wanna
He's lost his life, his hope and he ain't gonna
Know it isn't easy, something don't feel right
He's got a temporary loss of appetite

My friend said he'd give up the dope
He ain't gonna
It makes no sense to me
I guess he thinks that's how he's gotta be
Oh no

He tried it first when he was thirteen
Made him throw up
Now he's nice and clean bet he'll show up
He's always searchin' for his fix
He's always strung out
He's stealin', turning tricks

His heart didn't beat anymore
He woke up one day
His heart didn't beat no more
His heart didn't beat anymore

My friends said he'd give up the dope
He don't wanna
(HE DON'T WANNA!)

He's lost his life, his hope and he ain't gonna
Know it isn't easy, something don't feel right
He's got a temporary loss of appetite
My friend said he'd give up the dope
He ain't gonna
(HE AIN'T GONNA!)

He's always searchin' for his fix
He's always strung out
He's stealin', turning tricks

His heart didn't beat anymore
He woke up one day
His heart didn't beat no more
His heart didn't beat anymore

He woke up
His heart didn't beat no more
