

The Great Oppressor

Darkest Hour

You hit me heading to disaster
You, you're never allowed
You'll never brush your heart to be
The same way you are
If anything, the best you
Could she'd out the sun
I'll be in here, never allowed to
Fucking it when it's gone

There's no sun, let alone put it to piece to run
The fault of hearing creation
We'll never see and never understand just one
We are the hearing attention

I know you're living a darker life
Out of my mind like you're out of my sight
Re-Fucking, rewired, selecting desire
I'm feeling the fire ignite
I'll see you there for the rest of your life
Until the end of all time

I see this never ending terror, you (Fucking)
You'll never run free
You'll never trust this screaming now
Be it from the lace (Fucking)

There's no sun, let alone put it to piece to run
The fault of hearing creation
We'll never see and never understand just one
We are the hearing attention

I know you're living a darker life
Out of my mind like you're out of my sight
Re-Fucking, rewired, selecting desire
I'm feeling the fire ignite
I'll see you there for the rest of your life

The Great Oppressor
Beating in a closer range
Living day with one that we could never (Fucking)
Ever take it
Graveness, we all don't need it (Fucking)
It's returning me to a better ending

Slaves, lot of slaves
That will beg for forgiveness
Out of necessity
As the shades, never give in
I'm the pressure of someone
Who's never giving a shit
