

Can't Find You

Darkseed

I'm standing at the coast and I listen to the waves I'm searching for a place to anchor my heart
But the water is too deep to find You I'm drifting away
washed to the shore Sand in my eyes
I can't find You
I'm searching stone for stone I'm diving blue for blue I'm diving deep in You but I can't find You Waters wash my soul
I listen to the waves telling stories far from home They live and breathe and break they're washing clear my soul
