Grizzly Trade

Darkthrone

Drastic Duties cloak my mind In darkness they can't see my game All walls are drawing nearer Keep on pushing, I'll be born again

Court-marshaled for doing my job - Bitterness scraping at my thoughts The stupid eyes of the world are watching I will never cave in

In (the) cerebral abyss The grizzly trade thrives Unpleasant necessities UH, mandatory pain

I laugh at your distorted accusations You're not worthy See the blazing truth in these eyes: You'll be judged by me on the other side
