

Leave No Cross Unturned

Darkthrone

Leave no cross unturned

Saw the soul with the last..
Laugh at your dreams while your bringers are passing
Commander of dread with the night man near us
Obstructor of well but born with no fear.

Leave no cross, leave no cross unturned
Leave no cross, leave no cross unturned
Leave no cross, leave no cross unturned
Leave no cross, leave no cross unturned

Where is the void, where is the asked force?
Worrying near and no one express force
Crystallized doubts, don't even had to act tough
Rocking the brats, blow the reactor.

Leave no cross, leave no cross unturned
Leave no cross, leave no cross unturned
Leave no cross, leave no cross unturned
Leave no cross, leave no cross unturned

All right, turn the pains reruns
And channel golden tweaks
Rise us in the sky, deranged parents and empty leagues
Listen, torn by the innocent
Molded bright so hidden
Remnants of gain and lust upon us
NOCTURNO CULTO, hail!
