

Rust

Darkthrone

I come from a land of systematic erasure of optimism and positiveness
You don't want to encourage me

Slowly corroding your fortified norm Leaving you bitter, grim and sober

With rigid cramp or silent fear
I strangle what you do hold dear
With rigid cramp or silent fear evoking addiction, limp, severe

It's sin again
Like charcoal on flaming nuns Consistence unknown like early black metal

We're born without armor - don't you think I'm watching my back ?!

With rigid cramp or silent fear
I strangle what you hold dear
With rigid cramp or silent fear evoke addiction; limp; severe
