Two Souls Creature The Salvation

Darkwell

Now the road is paved enough blood is spilled The path is gone, my fate fulfilled The gate in front of my eyes Where sweet salvation lies

I always had to play along the cruel game It's over now, no remorse, no fame But the end is mine

My spirit's rising My mind is falling My soul is burning Sweet salvation

The flames are licking at my shanks Pain streams through my mortal body There's my tortured soul There's my evil spirit

Fanatic greed stands in their eyes As my body turns to ashes And my soul is free The evil spirit is now theirs

My spirit's rising My mind is falling My soul is burning Sweet salvation
