

Just Another Lonely Mile

Darlene Love

Just another lonely mile
And I'll be at your door
Just another lonely mile
And there will be no more loneliness anymore
Just another lonely mile
And I'll be home
Just another lonely mile
No more empty nights, darlin', all alone
Just another lonely mile

Just another lonely mile
The sun will break through
All these cloudy days and my hard luck ways
Are forever, ever, ever through
Just another lonely mile
A few more hours my friend
I'll taste your kiss
The things I've missed, will all be in my arms
Again, in just another lonely mile

My wandering sunny days have all
Turned dark as blood (dark as blood)
The fire in your eyes lights my way
I'll soon be back in the sunshine of your love

Just another lonely mile (Just another lonely mile)
Just another lonely mile (Just another lonely mile)
Just another lonely mile

(Musical Interlude)

My wandering sunny days have all
Turned dark as blood (dark as blood)
The fire in your eyes lights my way
I'll soon be back in the sunshine of your love

Just another lonely mile
And I'll be home
Just another lonely mile
No more empty nights, Darlin', all alone

Just another lonely mile
A few more hours my friend
I'll taste your kiss
And the things I've missed
Will all be in my arms again
Just another lonely mile
