Mercy Endures

Darlene Zschech

I come to You, my God The joy of my salvation, In You I put my trust. And though I walk through valleys low,

I will fear no evil.

Your love endures forever, Reaches to the heavens. And though my flesh may fail me, Yo'ure the strength of my heart, You will always be. I know Your loving kindness, The power of forgiveness. All that I hold dear is Yours. My Jesus, it's You I long for.

I love Your Name, Oh Lord, I'll sing Your praises eternally. My life is in Your hands, And when darkness tries to cover me, I will ever give You praise. I will ever glorify.
