

Under Grace

Darlene Zschech

Under grace, you cover my failing again
Heavenly rain you wash all my fear away
When I woke today, the sun was not hiding away
And hope filled my world once again

My life forever, changed by the Master
My life forever, given to praise
And I'm forever grateful for my salvation
Washing over all my sin You are washing over all my sin

Beautiful mercy reaching to rescue my soul
Whole at the cross, where Love came to cover it all, once and f or all
As evening parades, the setting sun calls me to praise
And You fill my world once again

Rain, rain, come again I pray
Rain, rain, come again heaven's rain
Washing over all my sin

Rain, rain, come again I pray
Rain, rain, come again heaven's rain
Rain, rain come again,
Washing over all my sin

These aren't the tears of sadness or pain
These are the tears of one who knows grace
Washing over all my sin
