

Bloodstained Heart

Darren Hayes

Love, You're in pieces
There's no one left to lay you down
Or say it's okay
On the worst night
Of the worst year that we might fall
We'll go out punching

You hit me like a subway train
And I will never be the same
And darling I'll follow you down to the ground
Even when you fall apart
I'll pick up your bloodstained heart
And darling I'll follow you down to the ground

In the gutter
Were you starless and blind to dreams?
We can dream each other
To a new day
Where the good guys always win
And heaven still means something

You hit me like a subway train
And I will never be the same
And darling I'll follow you down to the ground
Even when you fall apart
I'll pick up your bloodstained heart
And darling I'll follow you down to the ground

Love, when you're in pieces
There's no one left to dry your eyes

You hit me like a subway train
And I will never be the same
And darling I'll follow you down to the ground
Even when you fall apart
I'll pick up your bloodstained heart
Oh darling I'll follow you down to the ground
