

God Walking Into the Room

Darren Hayes

You and I, we got splintered
Cut in two like earth and the sky
I say a prayer in the distance
That my faith in love will survive

My friends tell me I should look around for somebody new
But they don't know you
They don't understand the gravity I've fallen into
'Cause I still feel you

'Cause you bring me love, you lift me up
And every time we kiss is like God walking into the room
Forgive me, love, I can't give you up
Every time we kiss is like God walking into the room

Can I make a confession?
I'm lighting candles for you and I
I pray for a love, resurrection
And all the things we lost in the fire

Oh, my friends tell me I should look around for somebody new
But they don't know you
They don't look into your eyes or tremble like I do
Every time I see you

'Cause you bring me love, you lift me up
Every time we kiss is like God walking into the room
Forgive me, love, can't give you up
Hand upon the Bible, your love is survival I tell you

Oh, oh, I've never felt this before
Oh, oh, my soul never falls to the floor
Oh, oh, you look right into me
Like God walking into the room, like it's meant to be

You and I, we were splintered
Cut in two like earth and the sea
I say a prayer that in the distance
My faith in love will bring you back to me

You bring me love, you lift me up
And every time we kiss is like God walking into the room
Forgive me love, I can't you give up
My hands upon the Bible, your love is survival I tell you

Oh, oh, I've never felt this before
Oh, oh, my soul never falls to the floor
Oh, oh, you look right into me
Like God walking into the room, like it's meant to be
