

Setting Sun

Darren Hayes

Leave me alone
Come over here
I know it sounds funny
But I just cant stand another day on my own
Another bug in my ear sounds like noise to me

Living alone
A chill in the air
I don't hear from my brother
He is living in another continent far away
And it was his birthday today
But I think I missed it

Setting sun
I think I'm heading for a setting sun
I really need to find a way back home
Oh it's so urgent
There's an urgency

Leave me alone
Get out of here
Still chasing my daddy
Singing songs about my mammy

Got to let it go
Before I go down with the ship
There's my heartache sinking

Leave it alone
Put it to bed
Everybody changing memory
Set in the pages of an email or two
Yeah I read all 32
It was love prized out of you

Setting sun
I think I'm heading for a setting sun
I really need to find a way back home
Oh it's so urgent
There's an urgency behind the setting sun
I think I'm heading for a setting sun
I really need to find a way back home
Oh it's so urgent
There's an urgency

Do I make you hot?
Do I make you uncomfortable?
A stirring down in your soul for something more
Does it happen a lot?
Does the drudgery bring you down?
Is anyone still around?
I'm coming down
(2x)

Oh setting sun
I think I'm heading for a setting sun
I really need to find a way back home

Oh it's so urgent
There's an urgency
