Beyond the World

I flew on wings of the night To find the place beyond the world And so close I was And so strong I felt

But only the hand touched And in forbidden caves I found myself Looking for the key To the gate of a place beyond the world

And even nymphs dancing around me Laughed at my melancholy

This day, this night, I fly beyond the world Hanging between the worlds Sailing in dark air Towards the place beyond the world

Darzamat